

Furloughed friend at Loose Valley Care Home

Our much missed Maintenance Man, Alan Pankhurst has been off on furloughed leave from Loose Valley Care Home for a while, but he's been keeping in touch with us to let us know how he's doing.

His latest message came in last week and it looks as if he's keeping very busy!

"Here's a photo of me hard at work. The garden has never looked so tidy! So far I have decorated the kitchen and I'm halfway through decorating the bathroom. I have also been made to tidy up the garage and get rid of 'junk'! Love Alan"

Best wishes to you Alan, we're glad to see you're keeping your hand in!
