

Juke box classics with Kevin Walsh at Loose Valley Care Home

Last week, we were thrilled to be able to host a 1950s shindig at Loose Valley Care Home, with one of our favourite singers, Kevin Walsh.

Our residents welcomed Kevin back with open arms and were so delighted to see him perform again from our garden.

The event was inspired by the 1950s, with some favourite juke box tunes that all of our residents could sing along to.

So much fun was had by both our residents and staff, who boogied on down with each other, whilst Kevin entertained in the glorious sunshine!

Welcome back Kevin! Here's hoping you can come and brighten our day again soon!

Getting in the 1950s vibe!
