

Loose Valley Care Home to celebrate VE Day again

The team at Loose Valley Care Home has decided that it would be nice to enjoy VE Day once more at their Home, as their celebrations in May were on a small scale during lockdown, without a professional entertainer.

So they have booked Miss Holiday Swing, who sings a wonderful selection of 1940s songs, to perform her show for their residents from the garden on Tuesday 28th July at 2pm.

They will be getting their bunting out once more and getting in the party spirit once again. They will also be asking their Chef to make some cupcakes – what's not to love?!

Holly (Miss Holiday Swing) is a fantastic singer and always looks the part in her vintage outfits. They can't wait to welcome her for the party!
