

Loose Valley Care Home to host upcoming Ballroom Dance Show

We are excited to be hosting a dance afternoon here at Loose Valley Care Home, in our conservatory on Thursday 30 January at 2:30pm.

We have our lovely volunteer Jackie coming to show us her dancing skills. She is an accomplished ballroom dancer and regularly enters competitions with her dance teacher James. Her Husband David will be providing the music for them both.

We are all very much looking forward to seeing the beautiful outfits as well as the dancing.

As always, family and friends are very welcome.
